Rio de Janeiro Gas & Oil Show

October 3rd through 7th, Velan Srl participated in the above mentioned event as a guest at the Feital Group's booth. Feital is one of Velan's leading Brazilian Agents.

The Oil and Gas show is the biggest exhibition in Latin America, hosting hundreds of companies from around the world and providing a great opportunity to meet local and international end users.

September 2004 Sales Meeting

On Sept 29th, we held our International Sales Meeting with Mike Zivic, V.P. International Sales - Velan Inc., W. Maar, M.D. - Velan GmbH and S. Wingerath, Area Manager - Velan GmbH in attendance.

The meeting gave us a chance to bring forth new ideas and share new

In House Machining Shop

Two new CNC machines are fully active. This adds further capacity and flexibility to our existing machine shop and to the outsourced capacity.

Certificates Gallery

We are proudly continuing to display all International certificates we receive.

In this issue we present our PED certificate. We would like to congratulate our shop for creating great products.

It is without a doubt yet another major achievement.

strategies as well as resolve several pending issues. The meeting ended with a relaxing and pleasant dinner.

Cooperation with Velan S.A.S. - Lyon

In mid-September, we visited Velan S.A.S. in Lyon, France. Our French colleagues specialize in the production of valves for Cryogenic and Nuclear services. Their products as well as their manufacturing facilities are state of the art.

Our goal is to integrate their knowledge into our Cryogenic Trunnion Mounted Ball Valves while developing a relationship based on close cooperation.

Velan Srl wants to offer its customers its products with the most updated technology available in the field.
